ON TANTALUS.

Upward the winding ways trend, ever up;
Between tall, swaying, odorous blue-gum trees,
And hedges gay with blossoms of lantana,
And fragrant monkey-pod. A sudden breeze
And slender trunks are bent apart—
The framed mountains lying far beyond,
Lowlands in gorgeous tints, and mirror lakes,
Fair visions brief. While nature's load
Of joy in life is flung upon the earth.
The hills clasp hands in valleys green,
Where flow the fitful streams of secret birth.

Beneath a dappled trade-wind sky,
An ever-widening crescent spread afar, behold
The sea! And purple doves slip down
Cool avenues of gold,
On, on, from out the forest's shade. The wind,
Crown fresher still, comes, crystal clear, from summits blue,
And sweeps the upland meadows o'er,
Where the wild morning glories, steeped in dew,
Like opals gem the mountain side.
Shy ricebirds flit with plaintive cry
To giant koa trees tempest bowed
That lay their cheeks against the hill
And murmuring, woo each fleeing cloud.

MAKAWAO POLO PLAYERS COMING

They Will Play Against the Oahu
Club in a Few Weeks.

On the afternoon of the 23d the members of the Makawao Polo Club held a practice game on the Sunnyside grounds. Those taking part were Messrs. L. von Tempsky, F. A. Alexander, D. C. Lindsay, S. E. Kalama, F. Baldwin, W. O. Aiken, D. T. Fleming and Harry Copp. After the game an informal discussion took place concerning the proposed game with the Oahu Polo Club. Nothing definite was decided. It is known, however, that the Oahu association wishes to play the Maui boys, but not as yet for the polo championship. They do not wish at this time—probably because so many of their players are novices—to meet the best team that can be selected by the Makawao club, but hearing that Messrs. L. von Tempsky, D. C. Lindsay and others from the Maui players would soon visit Honolulu, they requested a friendly contest with those members of the Makawao club who shall be present in Honolulu during the latter part of April, the proposed game to take place on the 20th. The Makawao club is desirous of accepting the invitation of the Oahu men. They will have another practice game this afternoon and again discuss the matter.—Maui Correspondence.

Card From Geo. Osborne.

Editor Advertiser:—Mr. W. G. Ashley takes exception to the notice that I recently had inserted in the Advertiser and claims that although he is in partnership with Mr. Paris, never have Paris & Davis, as a firm, acted as my agent. This being the case the notice should not apply to him personally. I remain yours very truly,

GEO. OSBORNE.

THE DANCE OF OAHU STUDENTS

Tart Reply of President Smith
to Dr. Bishop's
Card.

Editor Advertiser:—I think it is due the public that I reply very briefly to Dr. Bishop's criticism in Saturday's Advertiser with reference to the dance to be given by the "Scholars of Oahu college" on the 2nd of April.
The trustees and president of Oahu college were not consulted as to the arrangements for the dance (though they might have given their consent if they had been). The trustees and president are not responsible, outside of school hours, for the plans and conduct of students not boarding at Punahou. The president has not given his consent to the students at Punahou to attend a dance on the 2nd of April. Criticisms of the management of Oahu college are gratefully received if offered privately and in a spirit of helpfulness.
